

Lean Management Program

Learn the Management Practices That Sustain Results

Most organizations hit their targets through effort. Few develop management system that makes improved performance repeatable.

The Lean Management Program (LMP) equips senior leaders to build a proven management system that connects strategy to daily work — and turns improvement into lasting capability .

Why This Matters Now

In a high-velocity environment:

- Strategy drifts during execution
- Leaders spend time firefighting instead of developing people
- Improvement efforts stall
- Performance fluctuates

You don't need more activity.
You need disciplined management.

What Lean Management Delivers

- Clear alignment from strategy to frontline execution
- Leaders who coach disciplined problem recognition and improvement
- Decision-making grounded in real work
- Daily management practices that stabilize performance
- A culture where improvement is part of the job

Because engines for outcomes are built - not hoped for.

It was different than I expected, in a good way. I anticipated more lecture and really enjoyed the group activities.”

— Clint Olsen,
Director, Customer Care, Stryker
